THOUGHTS

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT. . .

It was a great Auction wasn't it? The attendance at both the Quarterly Meeting on Friday night, and the Auction on Saturday were a bit higher than usual. The total sales for the Auction was a bit higher than usual also. Give or take a dollar the total was $12,144. Someone mentioned that it may be the highest ever for our Auction. Leave it to these die-hard Cambridge Collectors to spend their last dollar on Cambridge Glass and then starve to death for a couple weeks. Being about thirty pounds overweight, I could stand a little of that starvation myself.

The "GUESSTIMATE" winner at the Auction was Nancy Sarchet of Cambridge. Her guess of $12,168 was almost on the button. She will receive one of the limited edition Scotty Dog bookends as a prize. Other details of the Auction, along with pictures, will be found later in this issue.

Don't forget about the MUSEUM hours being changed this year. The MUSEUM will be open Wednesday thru Sunday from 12:00 to 4:00. Make plans to visit.

This will be the last issue of the Crystal Ball edited by Peg. I know that is was with regret that Peg tendered her resignation. Peg is scheduled for extensive surgery and then a long period of recovery. I know you will all join me in thanking Peg for continuing to improve on the professionalism of the Crystal Ball. Of all the jobs that crop up within the Club, editing of the Crystal Ball has to be one of the least appreciated.

We are seeking someone to take over the job of editing the Crystal Ball. If anyone is interested, please contact me either through the NCC Box number of call me directly. My phone number is on the second page of your

In the interim, several of us from the Cambridge area will be taking a crash course from Peg (while she's doing this issue) so that we'll be able to do the editing if a replacement isn't found before the next issue. It may not be as good as what the Pavlovs, Phyllis, or Peg put together, but at least we'll be able to say you haven't missed an issue of your Crystal Ball.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Some mail directed to NCC and mailed or received during the first 10 days of March appears to have been tampered with. Some may never have been received, some had been opened and the accompanying forms or letters had been removed. Some cash may be missing. There were a number of checks received with no forms explaining what they were for. If you do not receive a reply to your correspondence (such as membership card, books, cup plates, etc.) within 30 days, please contact NCC at once.

Club News

National Cambridge Collectors, Inc. Quarterly Meeting February 25, 1983 Shenandoah Inn, Old Washington, Ohio

The meeting was called to order at 8:05 P.M. by President Kolb. In attendance were 10 Board Members and 66 club members and guests from 5 states.

President Kolb announced the door prize would be an NCC cup plate and the prize for the Auction 'guesstimate' would be a Scottie book end.

The minutes of the November 6, 1982 meeting were read by Janice Hughes and approved.

The Treasurers report was given by Bill Smith showing the Operating Equity as of December 31, 1982 to be $12,929.86 and the Museum Equity $81,240.76.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

BY-LAWS: No report.

CONVENTION: Chairman Jo Barstow reported this will be NCC's 10th Anniversary and a special Convention is being planned. Volunteers will be needed. As the Museum will be open there will not be a Display room.

CRYSTAL BALL: Editor Peg Gotschall thanked everyone for the ads and articles.

MEMBERSHIP: Chairman Phyllis Smith reported we now have 1210 members. Since the increase in the membership fee, some are not renewing associate members.

PROJECTS: Chairman Willard Kolb reported he is still working with Imperial Glass Co. on the book ends. The NCC cup plate is being sold to more Pairpoint collectors than NCC members.

PUBLICITY: Chairman Jo Andrejcak reported the free publicity for the Show and Auction has been out since November. The Show ads will be sent in the next few weeks.

BUDGET AND FINANCE: Bill Smith reported the outlook for NCC is good. The books are now at the new Auditors.

MUSEUM: Chairman Bill Harbaugh reported the Museum will open on March 2, Wednesday through Sunday, noon until 4:00 P.M.

PROGRAM: No report.

COLOR BOOK: Joy McFadden reported slides and price sheets are being sent to the Study Groups for pricing.

AUCTION: No report.

FLEA MARKET: Chairman Larry Hughes reported the contracts will be mailed soon.

SHOW: Chairman Joy McFadden reported some contracts and deposits have been returned and the deadline is March 15.

PUBLIC RELATIONS: Chairman Bill Smith reported they did the Sanford and North Miami Shows in Florida. Proceeds from the North Miami Show will be donated to NCC. They will be doing a show in Irwin, Pa. the last week in March.

OLD BUSINESS: None.

NEW BUSINESS: The following By-Laws proposal was discussed.

RESOLVED: that Article VII, Section 4, of the By-Laws of National Cambridge Collectors, Inc. be amended so that the first paragraph shall read:

"The Board of Directors shall consist of 12 members elected from the roll of active voting members. The term of office shall be for 4 years. A Director may not serve for more than 2 consecutive full terms nor more than 8 years in any 10 year period. Service of less than a full year but exceeding 6 months shall be considered a full year for the purposes of this limitation. A Director may serve the balance of the current term in which the preceding limitation is reached."

A motion was made by Dick Houston to place the above proposal before the membership.

By a show of hands, the motion was defeated.

Chairman Bill Smith reported nominees for the Board of Directors are as follows:

Evelyn Allen, Heath, Ohio Edwin Griffith, Cambridge, Ohio Janice Hughes, Cambridge, Ohio Lynn Welker, New Concord, Ohio E.A. Vimmer, Melrose Park, Illinois

A motion was made by Mr. Rummel to accept the nominations. Motion Carried.

President Kolb announced the floor open for nominations. There was none.

President Kolb closed the nominations.

The ballots will be in the May issue of the Crystal Ball.

Board Members whose terms end in 1983 are Lynn Welker, Janice Hughes and Ruby Landman.

President Kolb thanked Ruby Landman for her years of service to NCC.

Mrs. Mary Welker presented 2 research books donated to the Museum by Jack & Sue Rettig.

The door prize was won by Jill Cherry.

The mini-auction realized $15.50 for the Museum.

The Show & Tell and program on Auction glass was presented by Lynn Welker.

A motion was made by Virginia Houston to adjourn at 9:35 P.M.

SHADES OF PINK

It's time again to start thinking "Convention." I would like to see this one really be a smash as it is our "Big 10."

This year we decided we would not have the Display Room. If any of the Study Groups would like to use the room for a display, please let me know and we will reserve the room. This is your chance to display your favorites. Since our color this year is pink, maybe a small display of all shades of pink would help answer the questions everyone has. Please let me hear from

For you Early Birds we will have the tours, and of course our MUSEUM will be open. This year on Saturday morning we will again feature the Flea Market which has been such a big success. Good hunting! We have arranged for someone to do a Club History on Saturday morning. This should prove to be very interesting. It would be nice if all Past Presidents could be there. Banquet plans and speaker will be announced later.

We will need our usual volunteers for Registration, Book Sales, Ticket Sales, etc. Don't forget to sign up. It's your Convention! Do remember to make your reservations at Shenandoah. The rooms are filling fast, so don't be disappointed. Reservation forms will be mailed to you in your next Crystal Ball. Please help by returning them early. Deadline will be June 10th.

Your Convention Chairman,

NOTE

from the Editor

It is with regret that I find it necessary to resign as Editor of the Crystal Ball. This is due to scheduled knee surgery which will require a lengthy period of recovery.

I would like to thank everyone who has helped in any way toward the preparation and mailing of the Crystal Ball during the time I have been Editor. The articles, notices, reports, letters, comments, ads, etc. have been welcome and appreciated. They are, in essence, the Crystal Ball, and they come from you, the members. So the Crystal Ball is what you make it.

The typesetting and printing are done here in Cambridge at the Jeffersonian Company, and they have done a fine job for us. They have also agreed to take over the make-up of the Crystal Ball in the future.

The preparation and printing are just part of the Crystal Ball story. An updated mailing list with approximately 700 labels and renewal notices has to be made up each month. Phyllis Smith as Membership Chairman, has continued to prepare this list since her retirement as Editor. Once the Crystal Balls have been printed, Janice Hughes, our Secretary, sees that mailing labels and inserts are affixed and then takes them to the Post Office for mailing.

Please, as members of NCC, let these people know their help is appreciated, and then please support all those involved in preparing future issues by submitting articles, pictures, ads, letters, etc., and when doing so, remember the deadline and payment policies as stated on page 2.

Peg Gotschall

QUARTERLY MEETING

by Joe Andrejcak

The Quarterly Meeting and Auction Preview was held the night before the All Cambridge Glass Auction. Over 80 people attended the meeting. Other than the Annual Meeting, this was one of the best attended in the 10 years of the Club's existance.

The meeting included the Auction Glass Preview and the Mini-Auction conducted by Willard Kolb. The MUSEUM re-opening March 1, with new hours of 12:00 to 4:00 Wednesday through Sunday, was announced by MUSEUM Chairman Bill Harbaugh. The upcoming Convention is our Tenth Birthday with big plans for the Friday night Get Acquainted Birthday Party. By the way, the color theme for this year's Convention is "The Cambridge Pinks". Last but not least is the NCC Flea Market which will be Saturday, June 25th, from 6:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and will be bigger and better than ever according to Chairman Larry Hughes. See ad in this issue of the Crystal Ball. See you there at 5:45 a.m.!

Don't forget the Membership Contest.

AUCTION THANKS

from Chairman Lynn Welker

The 1983 Annual National Cambridge Collectors Auction is over. However, many people are to be thanked for making the auction such a success this year.

First, thanks to all those who attended. Also, to all the long distance mail bidders who couldn't be there but attended by mailing in their bids. Thanks is due to all the consignors who sent nice glass to be auctioned.

Thanks to all the workers for their hours of volunteer help: Bill Harbaugh for carrying the glass in and out, and for helping to set up the glassware; Vicki Wollenhaupt and Joy McFadden for clerking the auction; Norma Kolb and Phyllis Smith for cashiering; Willard Kolb, Frank Wollenhaupt, Bill Smith, and Lyle Welker for running and spotting bids; Larry Hughes for helping tear down the risers and assisting Bill Harbaugh; Janice Hughes and Jo Barstow for helping set up the glassware and ably handling the many mail bids; Joe Andrejcak for publicity; and Craig and Dave for auctioneering so very well.

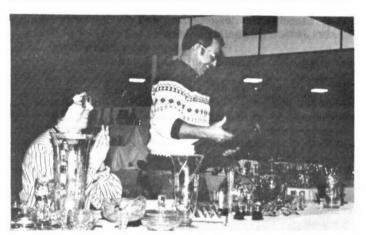

We hope that all enjoyed the auction. Plan to attend next year or take part by mail bidding.

AN EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY

It is with sadness that we must report the untimely death of long time N.C.C. member DEO BAKER, on February 7, 1983. Sincere sympathy is hereby extended to his wife Mabel, daughter Dorthy Lentz, and other family members. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

The CONTEST is on again
MEMBERSHIP CONTEST - that is
This is the time for inviting and "signing up" new members.

Prize for the most new members will be Paid 1983 Convention Registration Quarterly Meeting - Show & Tell table, Secretary Janice Hughes, and President Willard Kolb holding a Cambridge Glass Research Book presented to the MUSEUM by Jack and Sue Rettig.

1983 AUCTION OBSERVATIONS

as reported by Joe Andrejcak

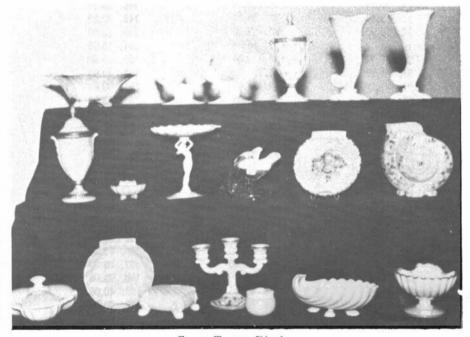

What does one do at 9:28 a.m. on a partly sunny, chilly Saturday morning in Old Washington, Ohio? One stands in line, waiting patiently for 9:30 and the opening of the 1983 all Cambridge Glass Auction. Then, at 11:20 on the dot (give or take 5 minutes) one sits with right arm raised along with approximately 125 other people while Auctioneer Craig Connelly and his able assistant, Dave Cobb, auction 295 lots of Cambridge Glass which included over 600 pieces of glass.

The Auction Chairman, Lynn Welker had earlier indicated some of the rarer pieces. A rare color combination No. 3111 gold krystol with amber stem and foot wines and cocktails sold at $9 and $8 each. A No. 119 rubina 10½ in. basket brought $300, and the controlled bubble paperweight sold for $50. The No. 494

Willow etched green enameled cup and saucer was rapped at $60. A mulberry Community kerosene-type lamp sold at $85, and a beautiful pair of ivory 9½ in. ball stem candlesticks with enameled flower baskets were sold for $150. Three No. 3143 sunset 12 oz. Gyro Optic ranch tumblers brought $72.50 each. A No. 2766 emerald 9 in. gold decorated Inverted Thistle nappy sold at $37.50 while the tumbler went for $30. A No. 66 13 in. violet Caprice footed and crimped bowl cost a lucky collector only $220. Everyone waited with Oohs and Aahs for the sale of a "one-of-a-kind" No. 1119 Eagle bookend made with a combination of crown tuscan and crystal. They were not disappointed. It sold to a very determined bidder for $500 - not a bad price if you like eagles.

BEWARE OF NEW ROSE POINT

by Bill Smith

It has come to our attention very recently that Rose Point has been another of the victims of REPRODUCTION.

It is our hope that making you aware of this situation will assist you in protecting your collections and will also possibly prevent your becoming a victim of a difficult situation.

We have only seen one example of this "new" Rose Point. It is a nearly straight sided, flat bottom sham tumbler of approximately 12 ounce capacity. It has a "safety lip" on the top as opposed to the straight edges that would be found on a Cambridge tumbler. A safety edge is a beading, or slight build-up, of glass on the top edge of a vessel that is the result of having been melted slightly to smooth the edges. The quality of the glass is similar to the high production items that are produced by companies such as Anchor-Hocking or Libbey. The glass is definitely not of the quality that we normally associate with Cambridge. The measurements of this tumbler are: 41/8" high, 31/4" top diameter, and 31-16" bottom diameter. The thickness of the bottom is approximately 5%"

The quality of the etching is a completely different story. It is an etching of very good quality, deep, sharp, and well done. We have tried to compare the etching on the tumbler that we now have with other examples of Rose Point, and have arrived at the conclusion that it does not appear to be from one of the Cambridge etching plates. Apparently it has been etched from a completely new plate.

There may be some hope for us in the volume of this "new" production. All of the information which we have been able to the same type with a capacity of approximately 16 ounces, and the third size being approximately 9 ounces. Quantity figures are in the realm of ten or twelve dozen 12 ounce, three or four dozen 16 ounce, and a very small number of the 9 ounce. The numbers are relatively unimportant at this time, however, as the real problem lies in the fact that new production has occurred. At this point in time it is apparently only in tumblers. What might it be tomorrow? If an individual or a company has gather seems to indicate that the production has been very limited. We now believe it to have included three different sizes of tumblers, the above mentioned 12 ounce, a larger tumbler of found an inexpensive means of creating these new plates and has found it financially beneficial to reap a profit from the Rose Point market, there would be no means available to us to prevent being taken-in by other examples of this work as well.

This instance of possible deception could very easily be compounded by situations of actually using Cambridge blanks in the new process and we would have no means what-so ever of protection. Hopefully, our being aware of the existance of these pieces will be of some help to us if and when we are approached with any offerings that are questionable.

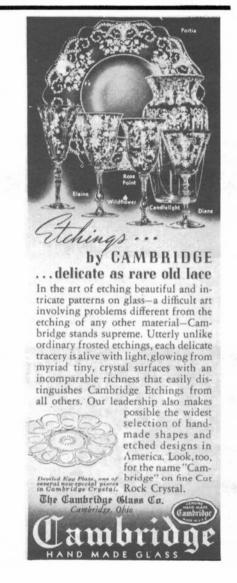

Any further information on this subject would be greatly appreciated, so that all of our collectors can be informed.

CAMBRIDGE PRICES IN FLORIDA

by Bill and Phyllis Smith

On our recent trip to Florida we visited several antique shows, fleas, shops, etc. Thought perhaps you might enjoy hearing about the prices on Cambridge glass down there. Most were quite reasonable, some were on the high side, and others were even what we considered to be a "steal"! You can be the Judge! The most outstanding piece we saw was a lovely brown Owl lamp. The asking price was $650. It was sold and we don't know what the final price was, but feel sure it wasn't much less, if any. At the same show there was a lovely light emerald green draped lady figure flower holder with a price tag of $225, and an 8½" two-kid mocha or light amber flower holder for $225. Amber is harder than most colors to find in these holders.

Has anyone seen any moonlight blue Caprice dinner plates lately? We saw a short stack of them and the price was $82 EACH. They hadn't sold when we left the show, but we have no doubt they will sell and probably at the asking price or very close to it! You don't see them very often in the moonlight blue. Also saw Caprice flat tumblers at $38 each and the thin blown stemware in the $24 to $28 range — all in moonlight. Caprice cups and saucers were $38 per set. The large Tally-Ho hat was there in royal blue with a $250 price tag. Tally-Ho stemware in the dark colors (royal blue, dark emerald, etc.) were priced from $24 to $32 each, depending on where you were looking.

At one show, a dealer had a beautiful display of willow blue Decagon dinnerware in a nearly complete set of service for 12. They were asking $1,800 for the approximately 130 pieces. This included, besides the common pieces such as cups, saucers, dinner, salad, and bread and butter plates (if these pieces can be considered "common"), such items as the gravy boat w/underplate, four-part relish, 15" platter, plus several different sizes in stemware, and other items we just can't remember. The set was broken up and sold by the piece. The gravy boat sported a price of $60, the relish $24, the platter $20, and the stemware was in the $18 to $24 range.

There were a couple of Carmen No. 3011 (Nude stem) table goblets with $125 and $135 tags, and of course we can't complete a report on prices without making mention of the 80 oz. Ball Jug with Rosepoint etching for $190.

Of course we will have to share our "steal" with you. How about finding 10 Cambridge Square cordials for $25? That wasn't for each, that was for all! If you should doubt that was a great buy, just look up No. 122 on your Auction results (1983 All-Cambridge Glass Auction) and see what the two that were in the auction brought.

We are heading for Pennsylvania the end of March, so we will try to bring you a few prices from there next month.

Study Club News

STUDY GROUP No. 5 - SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA "CALIFORNIA CAMBRIDGE COLLECTORS"

We held our February meeting at the Wanser "museum." The description fits because Herb and Betty have such an extensive collection of glass, including numerous rare pieces.

We planned our future meetings and set up the places we will hold our next three monthly meetings.

The topic we studied this month was Heatherbloom. We compared Heisey alexanderite and hawthorne, Fostoria wisteria and Duncan dawn with Cambridge heatherbloom. No wonder those colors are so difficult to find. They are truly exquisite.

Herb Wanser won the prize. The prize was a No. 6004 8" footed amethyst vase. Members who have not brought in their raffle prizes are encouraged to do so.

We then shared our latest finds. Ron Rockafellow had a Mt. Vernon crystal ashtray.

Betty and Bill Losh found a moonlight blue flower frog for the top of the large caprice rose bowl and a crystal frog for the small crystal caprice rose bowl. They also shared a mulberry No. 2 muddler, green asparagus plate and crystal individual asparagus plate in the Martha pattern.

I shared a couple of items also. One was my valentine gift which is a 10" No. 1243 carmen areo optic vase with the early Cambridge sticker. The other was the No. 1321 mandarin gold 28 oz. decanter with crystal stopper. Both are in excellent condition.

Next month we will study stemware at Carlene Mather's home.

STUDY GROUP No. 7 - EASTERN OHIO "THE CAMBRIDGE BUFFS"

Cambridge Buffs met March 5th with Roy and Doris Isaacs. Twenty-seven Cambridge Glass items were displayed for a contest which consisted of using the Cambridge Glass Books to look up their pattern, style and number. A half hour was allowed to find and write the page number and book it was in. Karen Jones and Pauline Westfall were winners.

A Black Light was used for the Show and Tell session with nineteen pieces of glass shown. This produces valuable information on the dating of glass ware. Things that will affect the reaction of the Black Light on glass are the amount of light in the room, thickness of glass and the era in which the glass ware was made. Charles Upton made a motion, seconded by Pauline Westfall, to have copies of Black Light testing results made available to members.

An ebony ashtray and some open salts were auctioned by Dale Snode with proceeds to go to the MUSEUM Fund. It was decided the next meeting would be at Dale Snode's home.

The remainder of the evening was spent viewing and discussing the displays at the Stagecoach Antique Mall.

CAPRICE SLIDE PROGRAM

The Florida Everglades Cambridge Study Group makes available its slide program "Caprice." This program currently consists of 103 slides with written narrative, and shows 149 different pieces of the Cambridge Caprice Pattern.

Caprice was produced by Cambridge Glass Company starting in 1936 and not ending until the final plant closing in 1958.

All slides are in color with the majority of the items shown in crystal. Each slide has its own narrative and the program takes from 1 to  $1\frac{1}{2}$  hours to present. The slides are in two top loading Kodak carousels, evenly divided to allow for a break during the program if so desired.

The narrative for each slide gives pertinent information regarding the Caprice items being shown. This information includes production dates, colors and other information of interest.

The slide program with narrative is available for rental to any glass or collectible club. The fee is $25, payable in advance, plus return shipping charges. All proceeds will be used to buy glass for the MUSEUM of Cambridge Glass owned and operated by the National Cambridge Collectors Inc., Cambridge, Ohio.

For more information, or to rent the program, write the Florida Everglades Study Group, 10045 SW 12th Terrace, Miami, FL 33174. It is recommended the program be reserved well in advance of the date you wish to show it.
