Auction 2000 - A Great Beginning for the New Millenium

by Cindy Arent

Potential Bidders Preview the Glass Prior to the Auction

Whenever you attend the NCC Annual Auction, you take a walk into the history of the glassmaking era of The Cambridge Glass Company. The various lines, decorations, etchings, engravings, and colors tell the wonderful story of the glassware produced by the company from 1901-1958. It has been almost a century since the first glassware was made and its popularity among collectors continues to increase each year.

This was evident as a larger than usual crowd filled the Pritchard Laughlin Civic Center with many attendees needing to stand. The auction committee was comprised of Lynn Welker, Squeek and Dorothy Rieker, and Tom and Noreen Kullman. They did a superb job in making this year's auction a fundraising success.

Auctioneer Craig Connelly, his associate John Kennard, and Lynn Connelly of Granville,

Ohio, deserve a tremendous amount of credit for helping to make the day run smoothly. They have the ability to keep bidders entertained and alert, as well as demanding top dollar for each item.

On Saturday morning, bidders began arriving from many states and cities throughout Ohio. We really appreciate the efforts of members that travel many miles to attend club functions.

President's Message

Convention Time is Almost Here

The auction is over and it was a big success, the biggest auction we have ever had. As usual some items brought big dollars and other items should have brought more, but at an auction you never know what will happen. A great time was had by all who attended this year. Thanks to the auction committee and all of the volunteers who make it possible. There will be an auction report in this Crystal Ball.

We need to track all hours of those who donate their time to NCC. This is to produce "in kind" dollars for the grant process. All hours that are donated to NCC have an "in kind" dollar value. While these dollars are not tax deductible, they do count toward matching dollar values in the grant process. If you are donating time to NCC, please report these hours to us at the NCC P.O. box. Please include dates, hours, expenses (miles and other costs), and subject so we can fix a dollar value to the work. This came as a result of a presentation Lana Watkins made to the board on March 3 discussing the grant process. Thanks Lana.

Mark Nye informed the board that the Rosepoint price guide has been completed and will be available at the 2000 Convention. If you have not participated in such an effort, you have no idea how much work it is. Sample prices from across the country are taken by major collectors and then averaged. Geographic cost differences make the job very hard since scarcity by region will drive prices higher. Thanks to everyone who made this possible.

Mark also said that three of the major etchings books will be available by Convention. These are Blossom Time, Candlelight, and Chantilly. The books are done in the same format as the Rosepoint book and should be of interest to collectors of these etchings. Other books are Wildflower, Elaine, Diane, and Portia, which should come out later this year.

The red Scotty Dog bookends made their debut at the Auction. They were a big hit. Have you ordered yours yet?

The Nominating Committee has done a great job. We have a good slate and it will be covered in the Crystal Ball with pictures and biographies on all nominated individuals. Thanks to Rick Jones and his committee for a job well done.

It's springtime and a time for renewal. Check your membership and make sure yours is renewed. There are changes coming in how we notify you about membership renewals. Jeff Ross has asked for these changes to help curb costs. You will be notified in your Crystal Ball a month before your renewal and the month of your renewal. You will be notified with a Crystal Ball for a onemonth grace period after which your Crystal Ball will stop. If you renew and want the back issues of the Crystal Ball you will have to request them. Please help us in this effort and renew with your first notice.

We are keeping an eye on the costs of publishing the Crystal Ball. Paper cost increases last year had us publishing at a deficit. For the moment, we are absorbing the cost overrun, but when we start operating a museum again we will have to find a way to make up the cost.

We have been reviewing with Dennis Snyder (Budget and Finance Committee chairman) to determine where we stand financially in regard to a new museum. Please read the minutes of the March quarterly meeting for more information. Thanks Dennis for your time and patience.

As you are visiting the spring shows, keep NCC in mind for ideas you may have for fundraising and display space. Sometimes you may see something that will invoke or provoke an idea. We may or may not be able to use it but let's hear it. As usual, drop us a line at the NCC P.O. box.

As usual, I hope everyone is making an effort at signing up a new member this year. I believe that anyone can benefit from joining a group like ours and we can certainly learn from new people too.

Until May,

Tarzan

2000 Convention Update

by Mark Nye, Convention Chairman

As announced in the March issue, the 2000 banquet speaker will be Gay LeCleire Taylor. Ms. Taylor is the curator at the Museum of American Glass at Wheaton Village, New Jersey. The topic of Ms. Taylor's talk will be glass manufacturing in the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries. More on Ms. Taylor in the May issue.

A secondary theme has been added to this year's convention...Cambridge Roses. June is rose month and what would be more appropriate than to feature Cambridge Roses at our convention. A program covering the various Cambridge etchings, cuttings, and decorations that feature roses will be presented on Friday.

The convention registration form will appear in next month's Crystal Ball, the May issue. If you are planning on attending the 2000 convention, it must be returned by the date on the form.

Don't forget to select a goblet to bring and use at the banquet. Also, donations for the mini-auction are always appreciated.

Cambridge Glass of the Roaring '20s

by John Corl

Rational Cambridge Collectors, Inc.

Past Display at Harrisburg Show and Sale and NCC Display Area Once again, the Elegant Glass Collectors study group will be setting up a display of Cambridge glass at the Eastern National Antiques Show and Sale in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The dates for the spring show are April 28, 29, and 30. This will be the fifth time we have been invited by Mr. Jim Chambers, the show's organizer, to do so.

In keeping with the tradition, we have chosen the theme of "Cambridge Glass in the Roaring '20s" to build our exhibit of the glassware around, since the opaque colors of Cambridge were so successful for the company during this decade of American life. They also blend beautifully with this time of the year, spring. I'm sure the beautiful pastel opaque colors of Primrose, Helio, Azurite, Ivory, Jade, Carrara, and Avocado will attract many admirers from the show's attendees.

We also plan to have several additional displays of interest for collectors. We plan to display Ebony, another opaque of the 1920s, and have a display of Caprice, a very popular line for Cambridge since its introduction in 1936. We will have a display of Farber Bros. Pieces, a very successful "marriage" between that company with its beautiful chrome- and goldcolored holders, and the Cambridge Glass Company, with its many beautiful colors of glass that were used in these holders.

There will be something for everyone to see and admire, I assure you. We will have all the NCC books and publications for sale, and of course, the Scottie dog bookends will be available for purchase to help our ongoing effort to build a new museum.

Again, the dates for the spring show in Harrisburg are April 28, 29, and 30. The show is open from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. April 28 and 29, and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. April 30. It is held in the main exhibition hall of the Pennsylvania State Farm Show complex off of Route 81 in Harrisburg, PA.

All the members of the Elegant Glass Collectors study group are looking forward to seeing all our friends again, and of course, are anxious to make and meet new friends. All are invited to stop by and ask questions, look over the display, buy books and Scottie dogs, and of course, TALK and exchange stories about the fun and joys of collecting the beautiful glass manufactured by the Cambridge Glass Company.

Hope to see many of you there!

The Program for the evening was on "Avocado", led by Mac and Georgia Otten. Members brought their pieces of Avocado to create an impressive display. Georgia, in her Martha Stewart mode, illustrated how pieces of Avocado can be used adventurously as accent pieces with other patterns and colors of Cambridge, such as: Avocado and Royal Blue; Avocado and Crown Tuscan (including pieces with Charleton decoration); Avocado with Decalware and frosted items; Avocado and Helio; Avocado and Pistachio. The door prize was won by Judy Rhoads. It was a ripe avocado, a ripe pear (a near match for the avocado color), and a recipe for Spinach Salad with Pear and Avocado. Coming meetings: April 11 - Ivy Ball Vases May 9, 6:00 p.m. - Caprice Submitted by Judy Rhoads Secretary

Study Group #14

The Cambridge Cordials

On Saturday, December 18, 1999, the Cambridge Cordials study group had their annual Christmas meeting at the home of Mike and Cindy Arent. Members present were: Carl and Shirley Beynon, Mike and Lisa Neilson, Mike and Cindy Arent, Joe and Sharon Miller, Mary Welker, Lynn Welker, Kathy Chester, Jeff and Jill Ross, Judy Momirov, Rich Bennett, and Lorraine Weinman. Guests were: Lindy Thaxton and Mark Votaw.

A short meeting was held to discuss new and old business. The treasurers' report was given. Lynn Welker reported on the progress of the T-shirt sales. It was also decided that a raffle would be held at the NCC auction. Other fundraising efforts were discussed.

At this point, Santa made his appearance and began the gift exchange. Among the glass gifts were: a Caprice footed plate with silver overlay; a covered cigarette box with gold Wood Lily; a Cambridge urinal; silver overlay salt and pepper shakers, cream and sugar; a RosePoint gadroon 3-part divided candy; an Amber gyro optic vase; a cut Bexley cream and sugar; an Amber narrow optic shot glass w/gold etching; a small Crown Tuscan swan in a basket; and an Emerald Green decorated shell and Amethyst pencil dog.

After a great Christmas spread of food and delights, more glass was discussed in a show & tell session. Some items shown were: a pressed Mardi Gras 4-inch shell; a Tally Ho pretzel jar, gold silk screen; an Ivory cylinder vase with gold Classic on it w/blue enamel trim; a Pamona "spittoon" vase; a large Carmen Japonica vase, signed; an Ivory blown bowl w/enamel basket of flowers; an Amber 3-part box w/gold Portia on top and bottom; and Milk Glass Pouter Pigeons.

Next meeting is scheduled for February 19, 2000, at the home of Shirley and Carl Beynon.

Study Group #14

The Cambridge Cordials

The Cambridge Cordials Study Club met February 19 at the home of Shirley and Carl Beynon. Fourteen members were in attendance and five guests were present. The group was pleased to welcome Ken and Jane Filippini. Paul and Gail Duchamp, and Melinda Thaxton for the evening. We started the meeting with introductions, visiting, and a tour of the Beynon home to view their extensive collection of Cambridge Glass. A delicious buffet was served by Shirley and Carl and enjoyed by all. Lynn Welker conducted show and tell of the beautiful glassware displayed at the meeting by various group members. He identified a Yale humidor with blue trim; a Peachblo water pitcher etched Gloria and gold encrusted; an Azurite bowl with NanKing Green enamel; an Ivory flip bowl complete with an Ivory Rose Lady unusually decorated with gold trim, enamel painted flowers, and a silver band trim. Also showcased was an Ebony frog

Early Cuttings

In the July 1999 issue, several pages from a 1913 Cambridge catalog were reproduced. These pages illustrated a number of early Cambridge cuttings, many of which are seldom seen today and without the catalog pages, virtually impossible to attribute to Cambridge. This month pages from Catalog No. 10, dating to circa 1920, are reprinted. Again, these pages show cuttings and while some of the blanks might be considered as possible Cambridge shapes, the cuttings are unfamiliar to most collectors. These cuttings are rarely seen today, possibly because they are not recognized as being Cambridge and are passed over at estate sales, flea markets, etc. It is also highly likely that original production quantities are a major factor in what survives today. Throughout the history of Cambridge cuttings were always produced in less volume than etchings, simply because they are labor intensive and time consuming to produce. Happy hunting.

(These reprints follow on pages 12 through 16)

Faith that the thing can be done is essential to any great achievement.

-- Thomas N. Carruther

vase, a nude compote with gold etched Minerva decoration, a 3035 Heatherbloom cordial etched Gloria, a nude Chintz claret, a Heatherbloom ball jug cruet, and an lvory compote with a gold cornucopia decoration with enameled flowers. Lynn Welker presided over the meeting in the absence of Lorraine Weinman. It was announced that the Miami Valley Study Group is extending an invitation to all to attend their upcoming meeting on Tuesday, May 9, at 6:00 p.m. A program on Caprice will be presented. Mike Arent gave an updated treasurer's report to the group. Cindy Arent made show cards and posters available for anyone who was available to help with dispersal for advertising convention. Details were finalized for the upcoming raffle fundraiser. Members discussed the list for the NCC auction on March 4. Lynn discussed the upcoming Roadshow to be held at Penny Court Antique Mall in downtown Cambridge in late October. He informed the club that the first Road show held at the Glass House was successful. Cordial members were asked to update an address and email list which will be dispersed at the next meeting on April 15, 2000. Members and guests worked together on a project set up by Carl Beynon to prepare the Scottie Dog tags for the new NCC Scottie Dogs. At the close of the meeting, members were reminded that the April meeting would be held at the home of Mike and Lisa Neilson, and the May meeting will be at the home of Sharon and Joe Miller.

If you are attending this year's convention and plan to arrive early in the week, you might want to bring your clubs and get in a round of golf before the convention officially begins. I will be happy to arrange tee times and fill out foursomes for anyone interested. For more details, please send an e-mail to Tuscan@clover.net or call 740-439-4582. See you at convention.
